PUBLIC NOTICE March 17, 2020

Effective March 18, our Province has declared a public health emergency.

Town of North River is taking all measures to support the direction of the Federal and Provincial Governments, as well as the health authorities, in preventing the spread of COVID-19. Therefore, the Town of North River has made the decision to CANCEL ALL CARD GAMES AND SOCIAL GATHERINGS in the town council building. Also, the Town Council Office will be CLOSED to the general public until further notice.

Town Clerk, Sheila Hall, will still be working at the Town Hall and we wish to advise the following:

- Residents can reach the town office via telephone (786-6216); fax (786-1955) or email (townofnorthriver@bellaliant.com).
- Residents can make electronic bill payments (via email: townofnorthriver@bellaliant.com) or via mail (PO Box 104, North River, NL A0A 3C0).
- Residents can find all applications and information on our website www.townofnorthriver.com

Lets all work together to reduce the transmission of COVID-19. Please follow the advice of our health authorities and avoid large gatherings and crowded spaces and to social distance and above all frequent hand washing.
